

TOM BROWNLEE

1985

Tom started his career in 1971. Recognized as one of the nation's top instructors, Tom has taught over 3,100 different students including four time national champion, Mike Yellen. He also set up racquetball programs in two different school systems and taught at Wayne State University.

As a player, Tom has dominated Michigan racquetball both as an open player and as a seniors player. As an open player, Tom won 80% of his matches and as a senior player, he posts an incredible winning percentage of 95%.

Tom played on the pro tour from 1974 to 1979 and in 1975 and 1976 was ranked 3rd in the nation in three wall racquetball.

Tom is the regional representative for Ektelon and is married to Cathy.