

LARRY JAY FOX

1993

Larry Fox, born in January of 1960, is now a resident of Novi, Michigan. Larry started playing racquetball in 1970 and in his prime was one of the fastest people ever to step on a racquetball court.

Larry has given many lessons and racquetball clinics at different clubs and at the collegiate level. He also helped Steve Strandemo and Jerry Hilecher teach at camps and clinics.

Some of his accomplishments on the tournament trail were:

- * 1st place - USRA National 15 & under division in 1978
- * 1st place - Michigan State Championships in the Men's Open in 1979
- * 1st place - AARA National Intercollegiate championships in 1981
- * 2nd place - AARA National Singles Championships in Men's Open in 1982

His most important and memorable moments were winning the USRA National 15 & under and being awarded the AARA Male Athlete of the Year Award in 1983.

Most people will remember Larry for his honesty and his lightning fast speed on the court.

Larry went to the University of Michigan and now is an attorney in Novi, Michigan.
