

LYNN H. HAHN

1984

Lynn started playing racquetball in 1970 at the YMCA in Ann Arbor, Michigan. His interest in racquetball began when he and three of his friends rented racquets and went to a nearby handball court for some exercise. Lynn states in those days all racquet frames were made out of wood and the balls were quite dull compared to the lively balls used today. Nevertheless, it was an exciting game and provided great exercise during the cold winter months. No one played racquetball during the summer then.

Lynn went on to win more than 50 state tournaments including 5 Michigan State Masters Championships and the Michigan State Doubles Masters Championship. Lynn is a nationally ranked masters player and lost in the quarterfinals of the 1985 World Masters Games.

Mr. Hahn has a BS degree from Alma College and is currently employed at the Howmet Turbine Components Corporation in Whitehall, Michigan.

Lynn is married to Beatrice and they have two children, Tim and Rebecca.

Lynn is sponsored by Ektelon.
