

BOB WILHELM

1987

Bob was one of the original organizers of the first state affiliate of the AARA and was a member of the MARA Board of Directors from 1977-82. Bob served as president of RAM and received the “Contribution of the Year” award in 1984.

As a player, Bob won numerous state, regional and national titles. Between 1982 and 1986, Bob won six regional tournaments and was second in his age bracket in three national events, winning the national title in 1983.

Bob is a highly respected instructor and has assisted both Steve Strandemo and taught at the Elite Racquetball Camp at the Olympic Training Center. Some of his students, Chris Cole, Jim Floyd and Kerri Niggermyer have also captured national titles.

Bob graduated from the University of Michigan and is a practicing artist. He has two children, Aaron and Maisie.